

HEALTH CAMP AT KANTABADA VILLAGE, MENDHASALA

A health camp was organized jointly by Deptt. of Community Medicine and Family Medicine, AIIMS Bhubaneswar and CHC Mendhasal at Kantabada village on 18/7/2017. The camp held under the leadership of Dean cum HOD Deptt of CMFM, Prof. (Dr) Vikas Bhatia and senior faculty. Dr Binod Kumar Patro, and Dr Swayam Pragyan Parida, was able to address the priority health issues of the population of the village and provided basic laboratory tests and free medicines. About 130 patients were treated for various health problems and counselled by the faculty staff, senior residents and interns. Health education on important health issues like breast feeding, hand washing, vector borne disease and diarrhoea management was imparted by the MBBS students of 7th semester.

The Team

Registration and Screening

Interns: Learning community medicine with community service

Senior Residents: The vital link

Drug distribution and counselling services

Role play by undergraduate students

Laboratory Services