

Report on Public Lecture at AIIMS Bhubaneswar

To create awareness regarding different health related issues as well as make the people aware about the facilities available at AIIMS Bhubaneswar, it was decided by the Director and Dean to start the Public lectures. Different department of AIIMS Bhubaneswar has suggested different topics for the series of lectures. To start with first Public Lecture at AIIMS Bhubaneswar was on Swine flu and organised on 22nd September 2017. The program was inaugurated by Dr Gitanjali Batmanabane Director. Dr Vikas Bhatia Dean , Dr Sachidananda Mohanty Medical superintendent and Dr Asha Setthy Principal Nursing college were present for the inauguration.

The Public Lecture was attended by more than 200 public and different aspects of swine flu was discussed by Dr PR Mohapatra Dept. of Pulmonary Medicine, Dr Baijayanti Mala Mishra (Dept. of Microbiology), Dr Swagata Tripathy (Dept. of TEM, Critical care), Dr Rashmi Ranjan Das (Dept. of Paediatrics) and Dr Binod Kumar Behera (Dept. of CM and FM).

Various queries of the public were addressed. Public was asked to suggest different topics through the suggestion boxes available at different places of the hospital for the future Public Lectures.