

Department of Community & Family Medicine, AIIMS, Bhubaneswar in collaboration with Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Government of Odisha have organised a four day "Epidemic Management Training Program (EMTP)", as part of the ongoing induction training of newly recruited medical officers under OPSC. The induction training of the first batch of twenty medical officers has started since yesterday i.e. 5th and will continue until 9th June, 2015 at AIIMS, Bhubaneswar. This will be an ongoing feature in days to come.

This training programme was inaugurated by Dr A K Mahapatra, Director AIIMS Bhubaneswar, Dr CVN Rao, Deputy Director, SIHFW, GoO, and Dr Vikas Bhatia, Dean, AIIMS Bhubaneswar. Dr V Bhatia explained the importance of this training programme and growing problem of epidemics in the State of Odisha. The training program was coordinated by Dr Preetam Mahajan and Dr Binod Kr Patro. Faculty from various departments were resource persons.

