

Inaugural issue of Indian Journal of Community and Family Medicine under aegis of Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Govt. of India has been released in the month of April, 2015. The objective of the journal is to promulgate high quality research carried out in the Institutes of National Importance and build a strong scientific base for both clinical and public health practices and policies. Dr Vikas Bhatia is Editor-in-Chief of the journal and highly reputed professionals are in editorial board and advisory board from various institutions of repute and different parts of the India and continents. The print version is also being sent to more than 250 institutions and organizations within India and abroad. Journal is already being indexed in many indexing agencies like Index Medicus SEA WHO, International Scientific Indexing, Scientific Indexing Service, Indian Citation Index, Indian Science Abstracts, J-Gate and CNKI Scholar. With this endeavour, young doctors will be motivated and encouraged to write and publish their works.
